PRESS NEWS

Hospital Radio Basingstoke, which broadcasts to the patients and staff of North Hampshire Hospital is back on air today, Sunday 28th January 2001 at 12pm.

The station has been off the air since July 1999 following a fire at the station's studios. But today, after 561 days of silence, Chairman Dave Leonard will be joined by the rest of the HRB team along with voices from the past to re-launch the station.

Programmes can be heard within the hospital on 945 medium wave and contain a mixture of music, news and information. Highlights of the first week include an interview with Dame Vera Lynn today and the first ever regular five day a week breakfast show on the station which starts tomorrow morning at 8.
